

401kWire.com

The insiders' edge for defined contribution executives!
an InvestmentWires' Publication

Thursday, March 31, 2022

A 13-Year Pentegra Vet Prepares to Exit

A senior Pentegra Retirement Services veteran is preparing to retire after more than 13 years with the provider.

Bill Pieper will be retiring from the White Plains, New York-based company later in 2022, a spokesperson for Pentegra confirms. Shelton, Connecticut-based Pieper serves as vice president of trust administration.

Pieper is being succeeded by Eric Wietsma, who, as previously reported, joined Pentegra earlier this month as VP of trust services. (Wietsma will also serve as senior vice president and board member of Pentegra Trust Company, SVP and treasurer of the Pentegra Retirement Trust, and president of Pentegra Distributors, Inc.)

Before joining Pentegra in 2008, Pieper served as an SVP at Retirement System Group Inc., according to his LinkedIn profile. Earlier, he worked in trust, fiduciary, and benefit services at several banks: People's United Bank, Connecticut National Bank, and First Bank. He also served in the U.S. Army, the Connecticut National Guard, and the Army Reserve. He is an alumnus of Long Island University, the University of South Carolina, and the United States Military Academy at West Point.

Printed from: <http://www.I-Wires.com/story.aspx?s=64201>

Copyright 2022, InvestmentWires, Inc.
All Rights Reserved

Back to Top